

International Review of Law Computers & Technology

Volume 21 Number 1 March 2007

CONTENTS

SPECIAL ISSUE: 'Internet Governance and Some Byways of CyberLaw'
Edited by Joseph A. Cannataci and Jeanne Pia Mifsud-Bonnici

Foreword: Internet Governance Joseph A. Cannataci and Jeanne Pia Mifsud-Bonnici	1
The Early Ground Offensives in Internet Governance Kevin M. Rogers	5
Internet Content Regulation: Is a Global Community Standard a Fallacy or the Only Way Out? Abhilash Nair	15
Rethinking Accountability in Cyberspace: A New Perspective on ICANN C.N.J. de vey Mestdagb and R.W. Rijgersberg	27
Holding Companies to Account in Cyberspace: The Threat Posed by Internet-based, Anti-corporate Campaigners Tom Burns	39
Weaving the Mesh: Finding Remedies in Cyberspace Joseph A. Cannataci and Jeanne Pia Mifsud-Bonnici	59